

Dear John,

I Love you! Some very interesting things have taken place since I wrote you last. I have met back up with both Sterlings. The founder of "Greaterthings.com" and our filmmaker friend. Allan lives next door, and we have been talking. In my estimation Allan is much more refined and humble than he used to be. He read "my crystal Spaceship Vision" halfway through so far, and his only concerns with it have been along the same lines as your own concerns with it. Now that he is halfway through I am sure that he will like the rest. Maybe if I am to share it in the future I should cut off the first half. From the straight and narrow path sermon to the end is really good!

I have received Message #120, as you probably already assumed. I do feel like my Crystal Spaceship Vision was very real, and not dream-like at all. On the other hand, I do accept Benbanuh's critiq of it, and feel the spirit with that Revelation very strongly. I know that your Message #120 Revelation is true. At first I wasn't sure what to think of my name Montoggah, but as time went on, and the more I thought about it, it grew on me. It is linguistically significant that it is close to "Manda". Although pronounced differently it is the name of the Mandaic God, and means "knowledge" in Aramaic. There may be no linguistic connection ultimately—but Manda-d-Hayyi is of a family of Middleastern god-names starting with an "M". Such as Mazda, Manda, Manda, etc, which before your Revelation in Message #120, all seemed related to Michael also. Perhaps there is no connection; to my name Montoggah that is, just as Benbanuh says, and reveals to us that there is no connection with Michael.

Allan was struggling with my Crystal Spaceship Vision until I carefully and patiently explained it to him. While explaining it to him I mentioned that you had been struggling with it also and let him read the Message #120 Revelation. To my surprise he loved it, and told me that it sounded and felt like a true Revelation. I have never heard such high praise coming from him. For a moment I was wondering if we were finally getting through to him and converting him. He of course still maintains that he is Adam and Isaiah. I told him that the One Mighty and Strong will simply be whoever he will be.

I have been going to Church, and got a copy of my Patriarchal Blessing again. I feel a huge mighty change of my heart since August 15th; I am happy deep down inside of myself and don't even wish to be transgender anymore. I feel truly cleansed of all my sins, and am full of Joy! I am a Mormon true blue, through and through, and have been enjoying Church to an unusual extent. I am definitely getting my name changed to SamZiwa Young before I don't have an excuse to though... 😊

Remember how you percipitated my journey to the forest, I hope to likewise percipitate yours to be more "Solid". Solid like the iron rod, I guess you could say. I love you and miss you! By the way, the Revelation about the three different languages at the Tower of Babel was awesome and profound. I Love you Eternally!

LOVE Montoggah -

P.S. My brother Adam thinks my Vision is too orthodox and strict rather. I love you!
