

Dear John,

I love you! A miraculous thing started yesterday, or I should say, continued, only with a new awareness. I was listening to Bottecelli and Celine Dion singing the prayer, which is always good of course, but it's not the cause of what happened next. Suddenly I felt a presence of a friend, that filled me with joy and comfort! It was just as immediate as the presence I felt of you by the fire's side. Only this presence was Benbanuh. I felt him sitting right there with me. For a moment I wondered if the song had cast a spell upon me, but immediately realized that this was not the case, as I was having a hard time even paying attention to the song, and I knew with a perfect knowledge the profoundness, and the Love that I was feeling. I wondered what changed that He now had shown up in this manner, however it was immediately, or instantly, communicated to my mind that he had been there the whole time, and furthermore that he had been literally by my side for many years, even my whole life. I had only now become refined, or filled with faith sufficiently, to be able to feel his presence in such an immediate and tangeable manner. John, I now have a perfect knowledge that Benbanuh is with us! Whenever I turn to him in a desire for comfort it is now everpresent, as I can feel his presence with my actual instinctual senses! It's like when you know someone is standing there or looking at you. - Not in any irreway. It is like sitting at the campfire with you. His presence is filling me with comfort and faith, and love! I have never received such a great source of comfort, all this time. I know he is with me! This has been going on continuously since yesterday! I know he is with us, I know he will judge and glorify all the redeemed from the true perspective of their redeemed state; and I know that our reward is great and prepared! I have never thus far received so much peace. This must be what you were trying to tell me for so long. Glory, glory, glory to his name forever!

So, I am doing fantastic! I should be receiving your Message #30 really soon. I love you with all my soul! Rejoice, our God is great! I love you so, so, so much! I love you!

LOVE Abraham-

P.S. Oh yeah, hey John, one more thing. That one cartoon with me confessing to drawing a badly drawn picture, was in no way meant to be blasphemous, or irreverant. I am sure you probably didn't take it that way anyway. I really did feel like that, and it was making me so depressed that I was hanging over the precipice. I was using the comments of the "council" in the drawing to try and put myself in the shoes of someone else, and see it the way others might see it. That's it. I love you! I am glad that I feel Benbanuh with me now! I think things are going to be different. I love you so much!

Sometimes when I am too hard on myself, or I try to repent for a worry, or some such thing; ever since, the day before yesterday, I have felt Benbanuh's presence communicating mercy to my mind. It is having the same kind of calming influence as your presence has. Life truly isn't tremultuous, it's actually peaceful and harmonious, for the righteous. I love you.
